Taping Session

Richard Trask applies some tape to the windows at the Andover House of Carpets in Shawsheen Plaza in anticipation of the arrival of Hurricane Belle, Monday. Fortunately his work, along with many other merchants in the area was purely precautionary as the storm passed to the west of here, greatly diminished from its hurricane force.

Hurricane Watch Tests Andover's Preparedness

Bellicose Belle, a full hurricane roaring up the coast Monday, was reduced to high winds and rain by the time it reached Andover, but offered a good test of preparedness for officials and residents alike.

Advance warning of the hurricane threat began over the weekend and increased as the storm followed a steady path aimed at New England.

Fortunately, the intensity of the storm was reduced after hitting land in the Long Island area of New York, then proceeding through Connecticut and western parts of Massachusetts, reduced to a tropical storm.

Here, winds were not much more than a normal New England Nor'east storm and the rain, though heavy, was simply a continuance of a weekend deluge.

But residents obviously were heeding the warnings as they made preparations throughout the day Monday for any eventuality. Public safety and public works officials also took necessary steps to meet any emergency as advisories continued their warnings throughout the day and up until about 2 a.m. Tuesday.

Batteries and candles proved to be the most popular item, as residents anticipated power losses. Some stores ran out of batteries early. One store in Shawsheen Plaza placed its display of batteries and a clerk outside the store to accommodate patrons.

Markets also did a better-than-usual Monday business, as preparations were made to store the larder with foods easy to prepare without power.

Gas stations smacked slightly of the days of the fuel shortage, with motorists being sure they had a full tank before the storm arrived.

Interstate highways, Routes 93 and 495, experienced unusually heavy traffic as vacationers headed inland or home from the shore, many improved lighting in the park at East Junior High school.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin said that this has been desirable for some time and that the planning could be done within the time allotted.

While guidelines for application have not been established as yet, Andover along with many communities are getting ready to line up for the federal handout when the time comes.

Selectman Susan T. Poore asked about the installation of a stop light in front of the public safety center to be activated when emergency vehicles are entering North Main street.

This is a part of the TOPICS program which has been under study for some time, Town Manager Austin noted. He said that whether the federal funds

Some Desirable Items Put On Possibles List

The federal public works program, for which the town would like to obtain funds to continue the improvements to the water system, may also provide funds for other projects.

Monday night the selectmen examined some of the possibilities to see if the town would be eligible to receive some federal assistance.

The program stipulates that a project can be underway within 90 days of approval of federal funding and also provide for substantial employment.

The water project has engineering plans already available and this could be instituted within the prescribed period of time.

Also to be included and a part of the $10,000 planning funds requested of the special town meeting Monday night, will be

350 Voters Needed To Fix Roof

A special town meeting, which local administrators indicate should be brief but necessary, will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. to act on funds to repair the high school roof and approve funds for applying for some federal grants.

A quorum of 350 voters is needed to transact business at the special session, and this, more than financing the projects, is the major concern of Andover officials.

Without the quorum, no money will be available to have the roof repairs accomplished, and the work is deemed absolutely necessary for the protection of the building and the continuance of the educational program at the high school.

A sum of $225,000 is being requested, with a firm figure on the total project probably being available Monday night. Bids have been called for the project and are scheduled for opening and review by the town manager on Friday.

From an economic standpoint, taxpayers won't be hit too badly, if current recommendations are followed for the roof project.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin has recommended that the funds be provided from the Free Cash account which now amounts to $1,948,000.

The Finance Committee, at their meeting Tuesday night, concurred with the manager's recommendations and also propose the free cash route for financing the project.

Selectmen at the moment are also going the free cash path, but not as affirmatively.

At their meeting on Monday, the selectmen approved two to one opting for free cash.

Selectman Richard J. Bowen had suggested bonding the funds for the roof repair, noting the future expenses facing the town and the need for free cash to reduce the tax rate impact in the coming year.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin, in response to questions from Bowen, said that it is getting more and more difficult to project the estimated free cash account for future tax rate computation, in view of state and federal actions. Austin noted that here in the first of

Flu Shot Program Under Study

William R. O'Reilly, M.D., and Mary C. Hamilton, R.N. of the Andover Board of Health have issued the following statement relative to the immunization program with Swine Influenza and A. Victoria vaccines. Members of the Board of Health and Mrs. Hamilton have attended meetings with state, regional and local health officials relative to implementation of a program for Andover residents.

The Andover Board of Health is now waiting for final guidelines and availability of the vaccine before announcing immunization dates and the scope of the program.

October Agenda Could Be Light

The agenda for the October town meeting will apparently have as its central point of interest the establishment of a historic district for the town.

Selectmen Monday night heard from Frank Demers, chairman of the historic district study committee, and voted to include the establishment of such a district in the October warrant.

The board also accepted items from Town Manager J. Maynard Austin dealing with such items as funds for engineering for a major sewer construction project, installations of pedestrian buttons for traffic lights in Elm Square, and amend zoning laws to prevent property from becoming non-conforming after public acquisition.

Demers presented the board with an outline of the historic district committee work in examining the areas of the town and its decision to settle on the Central Street area for the establishment of such an area.

Hearings are scheduled on the matter and additional meetings with the selectmen contemplated before the October session to further explain the recommendations to be made at the October town meeting.

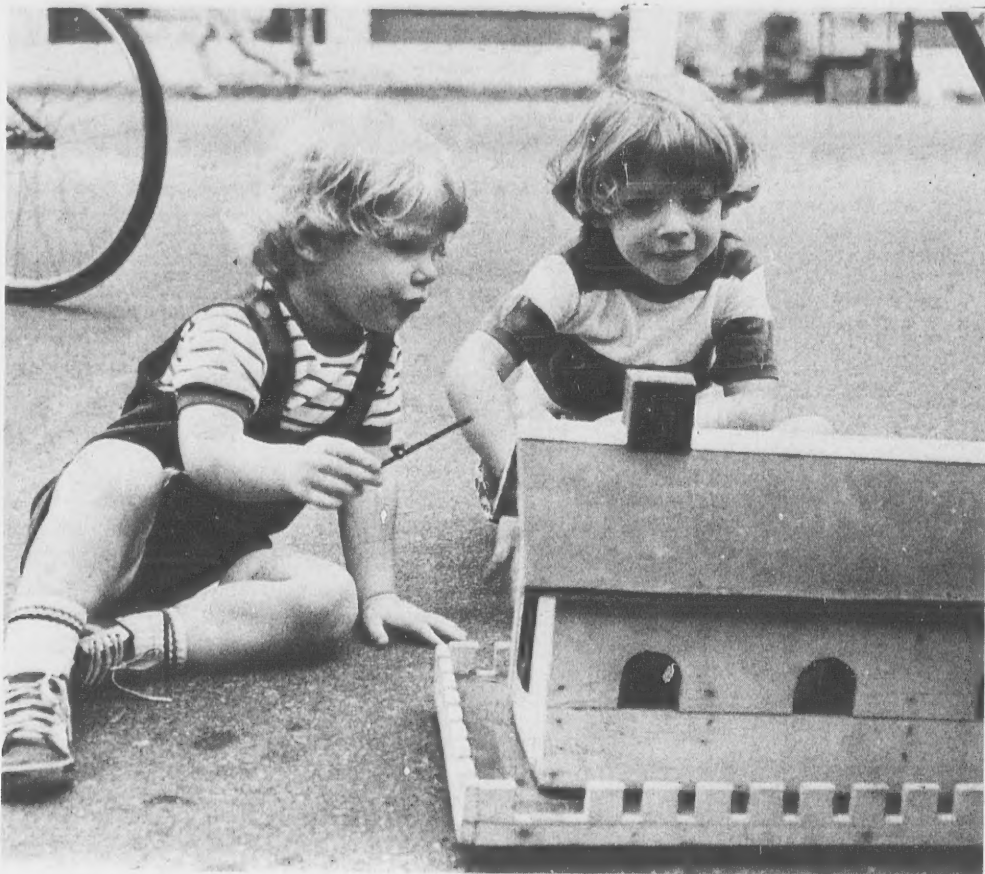

The Monday session was simply to provide an opportunity

"I Think Mr. Peatman Will Approve"

A couple of budding architects examine an antique doll house during the "Casbah" promotion in downtown Andover last Friday. Looking every bit like a couple of representatives from Royal Barry Wills are two-year-old David and five-year-old Brian Josselyn, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Josselyn, 21 Harding Street.

LWV Urges Young People To Register

Linda Smith, Voter service chairman of the Andover League of Women Voters, wants to remind all citizens, especially 18 year olds and newcomers to town, that this is the time to start thinking about registering to vote for the elections coming up this fall.

Registration must be completed well before going to the polls so that voting lists can be prepared. Election dates and registration deadlines for them are as follows:

State Primary, Sept. 14, last day to register Aug. 17; Town Meeting, Oct. 4, last day to register Sept. 20; National and State Elections, Nov. 2, last day to register Oct. 5.

Registration takes place at the town clerk's office in Town Hall during normal business hours, 8:30 - 4:30 Monday - Friday, with special Saturday and evening registration hours held as the deadlines for registration approach. Check with the town clerk's office or in the TOWNSMAN for the dates of these special sessions.

There is no longer any waiting period for new residents of Andover to become town voters. Newcomers should simply bring with them some proof of residence when they register. Ms. Smith stresses the importance of 18 year olds, or those who will turn 18 on or before the elections, completing their voter registration form now so they will be able to cast their ballot on election day. They should bring an official birth certificate or their driver's license with them when they register to vote.

Students out of town at college can vote by absentee ballot if they apply to the Town Clerk's office by mail or in person by noon the day before the election. Written requests for absentee ballots should be made either by the official application form or a letter containing the student's name and address exactly as it appears on his voter registration form plus the address to which the absentee ballot should be sent.

Absentee ballots must be received by the Town Clerk no later than 8 p.m. on the day of an election and they should be either notarized or signed by the college registrar or assistant registrar. Absentee ballots may be used for the State primary election as long as the voter specifies which party ballot he wishes to receive.

Final Registration Sessions

Tuesday will be the final day for registration of voters for September primary election.

The board of registrars of voters will conduct two special sessions prior to the closing, one on Saturday from 12 noon to 10 p.m., and another on Tuesday from 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. at the town house.

May Place Gate At End Of Street

The town is looking into the possibility of placing a gate of berms at the end of Brundrett Avenue.

The action follows complaints registered with the selectmen this week by Paul Rollins and Frank Picone relative to speeding, vandalism, accidents and general nuisances by gathering youths in the area.

Rollins said the condition has been prevalent since the opening of the Fish Brook pumping station, accessible via Brundrett Avenue.

Both Rollins and Picone spoke of the vandalism in the area and the inability of persons to use open or conservation land in the area due to dangers created by the youths assembling in the area.

DPW Supt. Robert E. McQuade agreed the area was troublesome, noting that workmen going down to check the pumping station at night proceed only with a police escort.

Selectman Richard J. Bowen suggested that the police should be requested to make a special effort to check the area, have the section posted and a gate be placed to prohibit entrance.

When Rollins suggested also the placement of berm, Acting Chairman Alan French said that it would be his suggestion that the matter be passed along to the traffic committee for investigation of the feasibility of the placement of the gate.

Hearing On Junction Access Road

A public hearing on the construction of an access road from Route 93 to the Lowell Junction Industrial area, will be held Aug. 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the Sanborn School auditorium.

The road has been a desirable item for many years, with the possibilities more favorable in recent years by the development of industrial properties in the Lowell Junction area.

Environmental Impact Studies and other procedural matters probably put any possibilities of the road's becoming a reality a year or more away.

To Check On Tewksbury Water Tie-In

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin was authorized by the selectmen this week to check with Tewksbury officials on the possibility of making a tie-in with the Tewksbury water system to complete a loop in the industrial area off Dascomb Road.

recently had a problem when a break in the main serving the plant disrupted service for a day. Austin explained that there is no loop in the area, thus the problem. With a special tie-in to the Tewksbury system, any emergency would be met. Local officials will explore the possibility.

Sixth Annual Block Party Approved

A few years ago, residents of Beech Circle decided that the Labor Day weekend would be a good time to have a safe and enjoyable block party for the neighborhood.

The popularity of the event has been evidenced by its repeat performance for the past six years.

The selectmen Monday night approved the closing of the street from 3 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 5 for the party, with a rain date of Sept. 6 also given the OK.

The sun was a welcome sight Tuesday afternoon, after some four days of rain. The Canadian storm of last weekend and Hurricane Belle brought welcome relief to burned out lawns and fruitless gardens around town.

Highways And Economy

Modern highways and the Interstate System in particular are not only safer, says the Automobile Club of Merrimack Valley, they also stimulate economic growth.

When a company decides to expand and is looking for a new building site, it generally looks first for good highway facilities, which make commuting easy for employees and provide faster and more efficient deliveries.

New plants, in turn, create crucially needed jobs.

could be applied to such a project, which is also state and federally subsidized in questionable, but he would look into the possibilities.

The plans are ready for implementation, but whether it would be approved under another program is the question.

Mrs. Janet Lake asked about Andover Haven improvements, and the manager replied that the funds are available and that possibly Voke school students would be doing the work.

Selectman Richard Bowen suggested dredging of Poms pond, street rehabilitation, sidewalk construction and a dead storage building for the town yard.

DPW Director Robert E. McQuade said the Poms project probably could not be done, since an environmental impact study would be required, thus putting work about a year away and not falling within the time period prescribed by the federal government.

Street rehabilitation also was ruled out since the planning and conforming to local bylaws would prevent it from getting within the time period.

In order to provide for the possibilities should the federal government look favorably upon the town's application, the voters will be asked to approve the $10,000 planning funds Monday night from free cash. Any other form, involving borrowing, would remove the generality of application.

Uncle Sam
Look-Alike

Willie Jones gets some assistance with the finishing touches from Carla Bovay, an effort which won first place in the Uncle Sam Look-Alike contest during the Good Sports Competition conducted by the Andover Recreation - Community Schools last week.

West Elementary School hosted the annual Good Sports Competition between the six Andover playgrounds this past Friday. 250 children participated in the 29 event competition featuring activities ranging from an Uncle Sam look-alike contest to poetry reading.

South playground sporting a flip top chain of over 225 feet long and close to 60 enthusiastic Good Sports topped the playgrounds for the second consecutive year amassing a total of 129½ points.

Host playground West Elementary was close behind accumulating 113 points to take second place.

Shawsheen followed West Elementary with 107½ points, Doherty claimed fourth place with 94½, Sanborn took fifth place, with 90 points and Ballardvale Good Sports piled up 58½ points.

A Peanut Carnival will be held in Central Park on Wednesday, Aug. 18. The event begins at 10 a.m. and all playgrounds will be closed on that day. Everyone is invited to attend free of charge.

South

"S" Troop spent most of the week preparing and practicing for the second annual Good Sports Competition. Everyone was busy trying to get organized. Steve strung up a tire and held football throws, set up high jumps in the gym, and held basketball and frisbee contests. Carrie hammered away at our 318 foot flip top chain, timed Chris Kovacs in sneaker lacing, put together our prize winning orange pass team, and made Uncle Sam's vest. Obstacle course races, jump rope and balance contests were held by Carla, while Scott helped in bike races and dizzy izzy relay.

The rest of the troops decorated the puppet stage, walked around dizzy, built campfires, tossed, sat on, and blew up balloons, raced around on bicycles, ripped apart phone books, wrote poetry, told jokes, putted, counted and ate jelly beans, sat for hours attaching flip tops and got jabbed, stepped on and crashed in pyramid building. Some say "Is all that really worth it?" We at South say "It sure is!" Last Friday, Aug. 6, 1976, South playground once again rose above the rest, winning back the Good Sports trophy for the second year.

Capturing first in nine events and second in nine events, South totaled 129½ points. A special congratulation to Janine Brideau, who took first in all of the three events she entered: balance race, puppet show and dizzy izzy relay. John Kovacs we are especially proud of, for guessing one bean off out of the hundreds in the jelly bean guess!

Other happenings last week include Loco-Motion Circus. Bounce came and taught juggling and painted faces. Ice cream was made in cooking classes. To determine South's best golfers we challenged our co-workers to a game on South's own "Mini Putt Putt". Mr. Slombo, Mr. Finnerty and Mark Sweetser were our challengers and they came out with a close 5 stroke win. After the match, Mr. Finnerty was presented a cake from the playground made by our chef Carrie with a sincere thank you for everything and best wishes for a great vacation. Carrie also had the children make invitations for Parents' Day. South thanks Scott Wilson for helping us through this busy week.

Doherty

The past week at Doherty was one of success and disappointment. After claiming the softball and hockey championships, the boys started their new sports schedule with a soccer and kickball game versus Shawsheen. Unlike the softball and hockey, the kickball and soccer schedule opened on a sour note. The kickball game was a slugfest for both sides, the final score Shawsheen 17 - Doherty 15. In soccer, the outcome was the same, Shawsheen again victorious over the Diggers, 3-1. Only their first loss this summer, the boys hope to win the remaining games and look forward to the playoffs.

Other activities included sand casting and package puff craft on Monday, flower making on Tuesday, and a trip to Pomp's Pond on Wednesday. Much of the week was spent in preparation and sign up for the second annual Good Sports Competition held at West Playground. Although the Doherty team only placed fourth, the competition was much enjoyed. The only first place showing for the Doherty kids came in the playground theme song competition. Other standouts were Sharon Flanagan and Glen Demers in the balloon toss, Beth Ann Grecoe in stilt walking, and Billy Donovan in balloon blowing. All received a second place in their event. Even though many lacked the skill, the spirit was there. Overall, the team had a good showing and all participants deserve congratulations.

Upcoming events to look forward to include soccer and kickball, Canobie Lake trip, backwards day, 50's day, and much more.

Sanborn

The Sanborn Superstars started the week off by practicing soccer and kickball for Tuesday's game against Ballardvale. Inside the building Terry and Sue were teaching the younger boys and girls how to do splatter painting. The day ended with a game of Battle Ship which saw Chris Sapuppo the winner.

Tuesday morning Coach Paul took ten eager superstars down to Ballardvale to open up the soccer and kickball season. Danny Kimball kept the game scoreless as he consistently made good saves as our goaltender. Then the Sanborn offense got rolling; Jim Kimball fed Tom Duncan a perfect pass and Tom fired it home for a 1-0 lead. Good defense by Dean Lockwood made the lone goal stand up for the victory.

The kickball game was a high scoring fiesta with Sanborn eventually winning 17-7. Barry O'Connell, Tim Leeman, Jim Kimball, and Tom Duncan led the Superstar's offensive attack while a good all-around team effort held the defense together. The best play of the game came when Paul Pathiakis made a running catch in rightfield for the final out.

Back at the playground Sue and Thea made fancy bottles with the other kids. Lisa Lewandowski sculpted the best bottle and Eddie Melia won in Battle Ship.

Wednesday morning started off with the Loco-Motion Circus workshop coming to our playground. "Bounce" taught us how to juggle and even Joan got in on the act. Patty McParland turned out to be our best juggler. "Bounce" then took out his make up and transformed six or seven of our superstars into funny looking clowns.

While "Bounce" was clowning around many of the Superstars were competing against one another to determine representatives for Friday's Good Sports Competition at West.

Friday's competition showed Sanborn to be Super Sports. The Superstars were not triumphant over all but put on a good show. Mary Melia was an A-Number-One poetry reader and Danny Kimball showed everyone that he is the best stilt walker in town. Anja Grant jumped to fame in the double-dutch event. As a result of Wednesday's Good Sports Olympic run-offs, David Friedenson was the super shoe lacer, Jim Kimball the round-the-world basketball shooter, Nadine Lewandowski the jelly bean guesser, Eric Friedenson the sdrawdckab (backwards) obstacle courser, and Robbie Ozoonian the super balloon blower. Steve Colitz and Patty McParland showed how to run and pop balloons. Jeff Bruk was our accurate football thrower, while Danny Kimball, Chris Comparato, Peter Fernandes and his cousin Gerd from Germany were super campfire builders. There were many super participants and representatives from the Sanborn Superstar team, and they all did a spectacular job!

West

Last week was spent mainly on getting our playground ready to host the Good Sports Competition.

On Monday we worked hard on our miniature golf course as well as played street hockey and practiced our double dutch jump rope for the Good Sports Competition.

Tuesday we went bowling at the Andover Lanes.

Wednesday was spent designing our stilt, bicycle and backwards obstacle courses. We also had a skateboard contest won by Matthew Butterworth.

On Thursday we played kickball and soccer and also spent the entire day making popcorn for the Good Sports Competition.

Shawsheen

The summer is moving quickly with all the activities going on at Shawsheen. Wednesday we had a Kids As Counselors day, where the kids had a chance to plan and carry out some of their own activities. Some of the counselors for the day were Tipp LeGender, Tommy Menzies, John Howell, Jimmy Micenti, Michelle Gaudet

We made finger puppets out of sawdust and flour to use Friday in a puppet show. However, mold hit before the paint did so we stuck with paper bag puppets.

Shawsheen came in a very respectable third place in Good Sports Competition, but in certain areas we were outstanding. Our comic routine, done by Joey Cormier, won first place. We are also proud to say that we have the best campfire builders around, burning the string with only one match. We can thank Susan and Hillary Carrack and Sherri Menzies for this.

Ballardvale

Thursday we had a feast on the playground. Both the parents and kids enjoyed it. Everybody brought different types of food, and we all shared.

Friday was the good sports competition. All the 'Vale kids had a good time. We would like to give special thanks to Lisa Hayes in her participating in the E.S.P. contest.

Indian Ridge Defeats Danvers Club

The Indian Ridge Tennis Team defeated the Village Green in Danvers 9-3 to boost its record to three wins and one loss. Indian Ridge has emerged as one of the two tennis teams in the area with its only loss to Phillips Academy.

Indian Ridge captain Kevin Seifert got off to a shaky start but held on to defeat Brad Montario in the tie-breaker. The McCloskey sisters continued their winning ways with both Maureen and Allyson winning their singles matches. The recently formed doubles team of Valerie Ziady and Lori Hoyt showed that they have much potential by crushing their opponents 8-2. Rosie Jannetti and Lisa Birnbach won their doubles match by soundly defeating their opponents 6-2. Robby Serbagi continued to be undefeated this summer by winning his match 8-2. The third ranked doubles team of Carrie Smotrich and Nancy Hamilton won their match by a score of 8-2.

In what was perhaps the best match of the day, Rick Palmese scored an important victory by defeating Tony Bono in the tie-breaker.

Skippers Win At Ipswich

A 12-year-old Pike School student skippered the first Wingaersheek Yacht Club boat ever to win a Cape Ann Chowder Day Regatta on Ipswich Bay last Friday.

J. J. Pellegrino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Pellegrino of Great Pond Road, North Andover, finished first in his heat of 22 Turnabout class sailboats, and first overall on adjusted time in the fleet of 37 boats.

He had previously won several inter-club races, but this marked the first win for W.Y.C. over all other boats from the Cape Ann area Yacht Clubs. These clubs include: Sandy Bay, Rockport; Eastern Point, Gloucester; Conomo Point, Ipswich; Annisquam Yacht Club and Wingaersheek of West Gloucester. Pellegrino's boat was crewed by Robert Dunbar of West Newton.

A former Pike School student, 14-year-old Katie Mawn, captured third place in the Flying Tern class. Miss Mawn held the lead for most of the race, but experienced trouble with her spinnaker on the last leg, but held on to capture third place. She is the daughter of Attorney and Mrs. James Mawn of Reading.

Both skippers received trophies for their efforts.

The 1871 Chicago Fire, which destroyed 3.5 square miles and left 250 dead, is blamed on "Mrs. O'Leary's cow". Damage was $200 million.

The Sport Shop won two games last week to run its winning streak to ten consecutive games and in so doing, clinched first place in the Andover Recreation Softball League.

On Wednesday evening the Sport Shop started quick against Whitworth's when single by Mark Koolan followed by a line drive homerun off bat of Tucker Klaus accounted for a two run lead after one inning. In the second inning single by Charles Heselt sandwiched between two walks by Whitworth's pitcher P. Dysombré followed by so loose infield play allowed the Sport Shop to score three more runs.

Whitworth's threatened score in their half of the second inning when Craig Conno reached on an error but was thrown out at home on a fly throw from rightfielder Kool to catcher Peter Anderson. Whitworth's did score twice in the sixth inning when two singles were followed by a long fly out.

The Sport Shop won two games last week to run its winning streak to ten consecutive games and in so doing, clinched first place in the Andover Recreation Softball League.

On Wednesday evening The Sport Shop started quickly against Whitworth's when a single by Mark Koolan followed by a line drive homerun off the bat of Tucker Klaus accounted for a two run lead after one inning. In the second inning a single by Charles Heseltine sandwiched between two walks by Whitworth's pitcher Paul Dysombre followed by some loose infield play allowed The Sport Shop to score three more runs.

Whitworth's threatened to score in their half of the second inning when Craig Connolly reached on an error but was thrown out at home on a fine throw from rightfielder Koolan to catcher Peter Anderson. Whitworth's did score twice in the sixth inning when two singles were followed by a long fly over rightfielder's head by Enos and a single by Tim Kenney. But the scoring was over as Sport Shop second baseman Doug Dunbar, who was called on to pitch for the first time this season, allowed only five hits in all to give Sport Shop a 5-2 win.

The Sport Shop came right back on Thursday to down second place Trombly's, 5-3. After Trombly's scored twice in the first inning on hits by Healy, Jim Brent and Jay Lynch, Sport Shop countered with three runs on singles by Mickey Ouellette, Tucker Klaus and Rick Gauley.

In the third, Trombly's scored a lone run on a single by Lynch. The score remained tied at 3 until the Sport Shop sixth when Sykes lofted a long fly to right which broke off Frank Trombly's glove for a triple. Sykes scored the game winning run on an infield out with a beautiful belly slide and hand tag under the throw to the plate. An insurance run for Sport Shop scored on hits by Gauley and Heseltine and an error. Sport Shop pitcher Doug Dunbar got the side out without trouble in the seventh to chuck the 5-3 victory and his second in two nights.

Sport Shop topped the final standings with a flashy 17-5 record. Steady pitching through the second half of the season by Vito Caiati, who accounted for 13 wins and only three losses was the key to Sport Shop's first place finish.

The offense featured steady hitting by Mark Koolan, Tucker

Klaus, John Recesso, Vito Caiati and a late season surge by Elwin Sykes, Rick Gauley and Bill Spencer.

Speedometer Check

An accurate speedometer is important - especially in view of strict enforcements of the 55 mph speed limit in some states. The American Automobile Association offers these guides for checking the accuracy of a car's speedometer. If the car is traveling at 55 mph, it will take exactly 66 seconds to get from one mile post to another. At 50 mph, it will take 72 seconds.

With one last home game scheduled for Aug. 10 against Wakefield the Sport Shop Soccer Club has iced first place in the Northern Division of the Suburban Twilight Soccer League. This has occurred because of last week's action which saw Andover pick up three of a possible four points in two away games.

The first game was played at Malden and the local booters were lucky to escape leaving behind only one ball and one of the two possible points. A 2 to 2 tie was the final result of a very frustrating evening of soccer. The game started on a bad note with Jim Wood being barred from competition because of his cast, even though it was padded and he had been allowed to play in the previous two games. Andover gave up the first goal at 15 minutes, and it could have been 2 to nothing as Malden on a direct kick had the ball rebound from under the cross bar and come back out without crossing entirely over the line, and thereby scoring a goal. At thirty minutes Andover tied the score at 1 to 1 on a high looping shot by Dave Vivian from the left wing. The Malden goalie watched the ball go over his head and settle in the net.

Just before half time Dan Lynch, returning to action after missing three games due to illness, took a pass from Mark Koolin and shot it home to end Andover's scoring for the evening. By the time the half was over Andover had collected three yellow cards, and it seemed that every other time we brought the ball into Malden's end the play ended with a whistle and the ball going to Malden.

More of the same in the second half. Malden scored the equalizer at 65 minutes. Lee Apgar, who played well all evening, made the original stop on the scoring bid but the ball broke loose and trickled over the goal line. Andover applied the pressure but could not score, and before the evening was over, would collect three more yellow cards and two red cards while Malden received only three yellow cards. The tie enabled Malden to move into second place ahead of a faltering Lexington.

On Thursday of last week the Sport Shop Soccer Club traveled to play Woburn the last place team in the Northern Division. The last time these two teams met the score was 8-0 Andover.

Eight goals were scored again but not all by one team. Dave Taggart opened the scoring for Andover at the 18 minute mark with the assist going to Dan Early. Dave scored his second goal seven minutes later unassisted from a direct kick 25 yards out. Kevin Dewhirst scored at 33 minutes on a pass from Dave Taggart. Dan Bernardin closed out the scoring in the first half with Dan Lynch getting the assist.

In the second half it was Jim Wood scoring on a pass from Rich O'Hara. Dan Lynch then got his second goal in as many games with Bart Farrell getting the assist. Jeff Welch scored with 10 minutes remaining in the game. Scott Vivian passed the ball up to the midfielder who was playing on the line temporarily. After two breakaways that Lee Apgar turned aside Woburn scored with only three minutes left to spoil the shutout.

The final score was 7 to 1 with Andover picking up two points for the win. These points turned out to be enough to give Andover a lock on first place in the closely contested Northern Division of the Suburban Twilight Soccer League. With Malden going to Woburn on the 10th, they seem certain for second place, and these two teams will be in the playoffs. By virtue of its first place finish, Andover will probably play at least one home game in the playoffs, but dates and opponents have not yet been announced.

Many of the boys that went last year from Andover, Salem, N.H., North Andover, Methuen, and Lawrence are still talking about the great times of last year's trip and some are returning again this year.

The trip will begin Aug. 21 and will end Aug. 29.

Frank Monette who is a long-time coach in Andover, has organized the trip for the past seven years. Last year 36 youngsters and 10 chaperones made the trip.

There will be meeting Thursday night Aug. 12 and Monday Aug. 16 at 7:30 at the West Parish Church vestry in Andover for those attending the trip and those interested in obtaining more information.

The first day of the trip will be spent driving to St. Joseph's College in Philadelphia, Pa. with a brief stop in Springfield for a tour of the Basketball Hall of

Warriors End Regular Season

Andover, having already clinched a semi-final berth in the Northeast Baseball League, finished out its regular season sparing their hurlers.

On Tuesday, lefty Bob Bedrosian was working on a two hit shutout going into the seventh inning when the roof fell in. Georgetown VFW proceeded to bunch eight hits for eight runs enroute to defeating the Warriors 8-1. Many of the eight hits proved to be of the tainted variety, but still did just as much damage.

Andover's attack was limited to four hits, two by Laszlo Kun, one by Paul McIntyre and the other by Barry Karamatopolous. The only run the home club could muster came in the first on a Morreo walk, a McIntyre walk and Kun's single to right.

The Warriors came back again the next night against the same club and went down by a 4-0 count as they continue to have their bad games when Bill Baldwin is pitching. Baldwin pitched good ball allowing only six hits, five walks and striking out three while going the route.

Georgetown scored three unearned runs in the third while only getting a single hit. They were aided by two errors and two bases on balls. The VFW added another in the sixth on two hits and two errors allowing another unearned run.

The Andover bats boomed all night, but only once was the ball hit away from a fielder and that by Mark Morreo who tripled to lead off the second and was stranded.

The season concluded on Thursday as the local club belted Timberlane by a 9-5 count on thirteen hits. They scored three in the second on Saab's single, Campfield's single, Berndt's two run double and Karamatopolous' single. They scored five more in the third as Morreo homered to left followed by two walks, Craig Traub's two run double, a walk to McIntyre and Karamatopolous' two run single. The final run came in the sixth as Campfield singled and Bedrosian tripled him home.

Andover was led by Karamatopolous' three hits and three RBI's, along with Bob Bedrosian and Mike Campfield's two hits.

Col. William Henshaw

First use of the term "minutemen" was by Worcester County patriot Col. William Henshaw of Leicester. In November, 1774, he petitioned the Massachusetts Provincial Congress for permission to use a new drill for his "minutemen". The term was already in use informally, but this was the first official mention. These minutemen, armed only with the essentials needed for battle, trained in every town, and were ready to act immediately against the British. Today's Massachusetts National Guardsmen, training in their own communities, like the earlier minutemen are ready to respond to protect life and property during emergencies.

Fort Devens Study Being Conducted

The consulting firm of Arthur D. Little, Inc., Cambridge, has been retained by New York District, Corps of Engineers, to prepare a draft environmental impact statement for alternative realignments of Fort Devens. This project commenced during the last week of June and is expected to be completed in August.

Three parallel realignments of Fort Devens are being studied. Each is considered to be equally likely to occur. These are to:

- 1) Maintain the Fort approximately at its present manpower by essentially retaining its current units ("status quo").
- 2) Maintain the strength of Fort Devens at a cost-effective level. This includes some changes in units at the Fort and the addition of at least one other unit.
- 3) Make Fort Devens a semi-active installation by relocating some units to other bases but retaining area support and other activities. This may result in a substantial reduction in strength but not to the level of a caretaker status.

socio-economic impacts include effects on employment and unemployment, housing, taxes, business, schools, land use, and community resources. The socio-economic components of the study will identify impacts in the towns in the vicinity of Fort Devens, as well as in the larger four-county area (Middlesex, Worcester, Suffolk, and Hillsborough) specified in the Army's impact guidelines. It is recognized that the nearby communities are likely to be particularly affected by changes at the Fort and, therefore, special attention is given to determining impacts in these.

Due to the short time available for the study, it is not possible to collect and analyze new data or to develop and implement new methodologies. The consultants would appreciate receiving any written data, studies, or factual information related to impacts from officials, public agencies, groups, or individuals. These should be directed to the New York District Corps of Engineers, 26 Federal Plaza, New York, New York, 10007.

The focus of the study is twofold, 1) to determine the environmental impacts, and 2) socio-economic impacts of the three realignments. These are to be determined for Fort Devens as well as for the other bases affected. The environmental impacts include effects on the air and water quality, ecology, transportation, historic and archaeological resources. The

Retirement Remarks

Boatswain's Mate First Class and Mrs. Stanley A. Mallory of North Andover listen to remarks made by Commander Kenneth B. Russell, former Commanding Officer Navy Recruiting District, Boston, during Mallory's retirement ceremony aboard the USS Constitution.

Globetrotting Navy Man

From Michigan to Lebanon to the South Pole, with lots of other stops in between before settling in North Andover, has been the itinerary of retired Navy Boatswain's Mate First Class Stanley A. Mallory.

Entering the Navy from his hometown of Harrisville, Mich. in September 1955, Mallory retired from his Navy career in ceremonies aboard the USS Constitution. His most recent duty assignment before his retirement was from 1971 to 1976 at the Navy Recruiting District, Boston.

Mallory's first ship was the USS Caloosahatchee (AD 98). He also served aboard the USS Haleakala (AE 25), the USS Wandank (ATA 204) and the USS Yancey (AKA 93).

It was during the early part of May 1965 that Mallory, while serving aboard the Yancey, participated in the evacuation of more than 1000 persons from the Dominican Republic. For his participation in this evacuation, Mallory received a commendation from Vice Admiral J. J. McCain, Jr., then Commander of Task Force 124.

In 1962, while serving aboard the USS Wandank in Guam, Mallory and another crew member, with only sea rations for sustenance, rode out Typhoon Karen, on a barge. Their adventure, which lasted for five days, began when the towline to the barge being towed by the Wandank broke.

During his Navy career Mallory received a number of awards and citations. Among these are Meritorious Unit Commendation, 1972; Combat Action Ribbon Award, 1969; and three Good Conduct Awards.

Mallory also received a commendation for outstanding performance of duty while serving aboard the Caloosahatchee in 1959. He is credited with an "outstanding performance of duty in noting and repairing the structural crack in the radar mast" of the ship. According to Mallory, the inspection and repair work necessitated his climbing the mast. The commendation continues, "By so reporting this defect you prevented possible additional damage to the radar platform and loss of operating efficiency of this vessel."

Although retired, Mallory still maintains close ties with his former shipmates. He has been described by one of them as an "eternal Navy recruiter" due to his enthusiasm for the service.

Mallory is married to the former Mariona Murphy. They have three children, Stanley, Jr., 8; Nancy Donovan, 6; and Patricia Ann, 3.

Quarterly Sales Up At H-P

Hewlett-Packard Company today reported a 13 percent increase in sales and a one percent decrease in net earnings for the second quarter of the Company's fiscal year. Net earnings were 8.5 percent of sales.

Sales for the second quarter ended April 30 totaled $279,764,000, compared with $248,357,000 for the corresponding quarter of Fiscal 1975. Net earnings amounted to $23,771,000, equal to 86 cents per share on 27,821,990 shares of common stock outstanding. This compares with earnings of $23,952,000, equal to 87 cents a share on 27,492,522 shares, during last year's second quarter.

William R. Hewlett, HP President, said the Company's incoming orders for the quarter amounted to $271,500,000, a gain of eight percent over orders of $250,373,000 booked in the corresponding period of 1975. For the six month period ended April 30, orders totaled $550,738,000, up 12 percent from a year ago.

Sales for the six months amounted to $515,403,000, a 12 percent increase over the first half of 1975. Net earnings declined eight percent to $38,847,000.

equal to $1.40 a share. This compares with earnings of $42,365,000, equal to $1.54 a share, during last year's first half.

"It is encouraging to note that our sales and earnings increased substantially from the first quarter of 1976 to the second," Hewlett said. "Sales rose from $235.6 million in the first quarter to $279.8 million in the second, a gain of 19 percent, and earnings per share rose from 54 cents to 86 cents."

"Second quarter orders of $271.5 million were down three percent from the record level of $279.2 million reported in the first quarter, due almost entirely to weakness in the international area. International orders amounted to $131.2 million, down 11 percent from the first quarter. Domestic orders rose six percent, however, to $140.3 million."

"For the first half of the year, international orders totaled $278.0 million, a gain of 11 percent over the first half of 1975. Domestic orders were up 14 percent to $272.7 million."

Hurricane

tugging along boats, campers and trailers.

Local merchants spent considerable time during the day taping windows to protect them against the anticipated high winds and possible flying debris.

For municipal departments, Monday was also a time for preparing.

Additional police were assigned to the early night shift and Sgt. James R. Johnson, head of the civil defense department, had his staff members ready.

Of particular importance was the maintenance of communication equipment and this was accomplished with the CD radio unit ready to move into action.

Auxiliary police members were placed on standby.

All of the town's communication equipment, which is adaptable to generator operation in times of emergency, was tested and found to be ready.

Selectmen met in regular session at Memorial Hall Library Monday night, but the planning board postponed its session due to the impending storm.

As the selectmen worked their way through a more or less routine agenda, Public Works Director Robert E. McQuade kept a wary eye on conditions outside.

McQuade is in the rather unique position of overseeing a department which must provide water for the townspeople and then accept demands to get rid of water when flooding conditions arise on the streets.

The DPW also includes the tree department which generally is called upon to perform extraordinary tasks in cleanup operations after such storms.

The offshoot of Belle brought little in the way of extra work in this regard. One tree limb fell on Central Street, striking a couple of cars in the process, but causing no injuries. Some small limbs and branches were reported down in various sections of town and were cared for.

Power losses were minimal. Basically, the storm was simply a threat, which the town took seriously, prepared, found itself ready for any emergency, then breathed a sigh of relief that all of the preparations were not needed.

Town Meeting

August, the town is still awaiting a supplemental cherry sheet with state reimbursements which could have a 50 cent per thousand impact on this year's tax rate, plus congressional action of revenue sharing.

Bowen felt the borrowing route would enable the selectmen to leave free cash alone until "we have a handle on next year's budget."

Assistant Town Manager Sheldon Cohen, who had composed a tax model projecting future tax rates for the town, said that the current free cash account was better than the projection used and also advised that bonding the project would incur interest expenses.

When Bowen made a motion to borrow, he received the vote of Mrs. Susan T. Poore, with Acting Chairman Alan French going along with the manager's recommendation and being supported by Mrs. Janet Lake. With Chairman Milton Greenberg absent, the stalemate resulted in the motion being lost.

On the vote for using free cash, Bowen abstained, Mrs. Poore opposed and French and Mrs. Lake approved. But the board reserved the right to meet again and decide, after a review of the tax model was provided later in the week.

The school department returned $108,000 to the town recently from their 1975-'76 fiscal year budget, which theoretically becomes a part of the funds to be used, should the free cash route be followed.

There is little doubt about the necessity of replacing sections of the school and gymnasium roof and substantial repairs in other areas of the ten-year-old school building.

It has been leaking for the past few years, with periodic repairs simply not catching up with the total project.

Consultants who have examined the roof, preparing for the town meeting, indicated last week that the deterioration has become even worse in recent weeks.

The gymnasium roof must be replaced in order to properly protect the hardwood floors.

Failure to provide funds for the work which will be done this fall, if approved Monday night, will possibly result in decisions to shut down some classrooms in the high school in rainy weather, the porous condition of the roof being so bad in some areas.

The second article on the Monday agenda asks for approval of $10,000 to apply for federal funds under the recently enacted public works program to carry out a major improvement to the water distribution system.

The project was selected for its ability to move from planning to actual work stage within a 90-day period, a stipulation of the federal project.

ty for town boards and committees to present their items for warrant consideration without the necessity of having to get signatures on petitions, a practice carried out by the selectmen in recent years.

Selectmen rejected a proposal submitted by the manager and the conservation commission to provide funds for full time employment of a conservation officer.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin explained that there is now a need for such a person on a full time basis. The conservation commission is now responsible for investigation and hearings on all matters affecting wetlands, and the work of Sidney B. Spiegel, a resident of 22 Brady Loop, Andover, Plattsburgh and Ormond Beach, Fla., was driving his car to the Vermont ferry, according to the Clinton County sheriff's department, when his car went out of control on Cumberland Head and landed in a ditch.

The car then climbed an embankment and rolled over onto Spiegel, killing him instantly. Spiegel's wife, Kathryn (Lantree), had been following her husband in a second car when the accident occurred around midnight. The sheriff's department said the couple was going to leave one car on the New York side and take the other car onto the ferry to Vermont.

Spiegel was born in Plattsburgh on June 14, 1934, and was educated there. He had been living in Andover and Ormond Beach. He was associated with various firms in land development operations.

Loco-Motion Is Local Hit

The two-man Loco-Motion Circus, featuring Bounce the Clown and his friend Cy (Cyrus P. Coski, that is), bounced into town last Wednesday to charm dozens of Andover youngsters with their gymnastics, juggling, pantomime, acrobatics, unicycling and the like.

Their appearance was sponsored by the Department of Recreation - Community Schools.

full of tricks: Cy gives a juggling lesson to Sarah Brent and other children at the Doherty Playground. Cy sets Tracey Ferrance's face with powder, in preparation for a pantomime show. Cy and Bounce perform a "hand to hand" during the afternoon show in Central Park. Beth Ann Hughs and Tracey Ferrance practice new-found juggling skills. Finally, in the center, below, Cy stands ready to "catch" as Carrie Palin forms the top of a human pyramid.

Two Apparent Needs

There are two inseparable needs as we approach a special town meeting Monday night.

One is the required repair of the high school roof, the other the necessity of obtaining a quorum at the town meeting to provide the funds for that repair.

Andover's administration has been concerned these past few weeks about the obtaining of the necessary 350 voters in order to act on the $225,000 appropriation for replacement and repair of the school roof, and probably justifiably so.

At mid-August, the height of the vacation season, it could be difficult to arouse interest among the town's voters to attend a two-item special town meeting.

But, it is the only way in which the necessary work will be accomplished, and prior to the onset of winter weather.

Danger in not doing the work is that some classrooms at the high school will have to be closed, thus impairing the educational program.

Too, there is serious danger to the gymnasium where expensive hardwood floors are jeopardized by the continued porousness of the roof.

Failure to properly provide the funds through a town meeting on Monday could lead to an even higher expense, should the gym floor become seriously damaged.

The concern over the obtaining of a quorum is probably real, but also probably not completely justified, based on past performance.

Recognizing the time of year being hardly the best for such an important meeting, we also feel that Andover voters are aware of their community's needs.

We suspect that the school department, which is most concerned with the problem, is aware of the need for getting out the voters on Monday, and will act accordingly.

New England town meeting, being a true representative of lobbying efforts, is subject to those with the most interest, mustering their forces to support their needs or desires.

Failure to obtain a quorum on Monday may mean an additional effort to obtain the necessary voters at subsequent meetings.

Town meeting is the only vehicle which can provide the funds for the repairs.

It therefore is absolutely necessary that Andover recognize the importance of attendance and decision on Monday night at 7:30 at the East Junior High.

In addition to the high school roof, the voters will also give the town administrators the opportunity to apply for funds under the new federal public works program.

The funds will provide some major improvements in the town's water distribution system, and possibly some other major projects.

This decision is equally important since it will enable some necessary work to be accomplished with minimal expense by local taxpayers.

We are optimistic that Andover voters will recognize the responsibility of attendance Monday night and remain hopeful that sufficient voters show up to shore up our feelings.

Corrective Action Needed

A special town meeting on Monday will act on appropriating funds to remedy this regular activity at Andover High School. Senior Custodian Ralph Couture places buckets about one of the corridors to catch the water from the leaking roof, which is in need of a $225,000 repair job.

Don't Get Complacent

Belle didn't make it.

Beyond some sufficient warnings, a little rain and some not so irregular summer breezes, the threat of a hurricane on Monday passed quietly for this area.

In view of the warnings and the precautions taken, it is wise not to be lulled into a false sense of security just because the storm passed us by.

Monday saw all sorts of anticipatory activity.

The dash for flashlights.

Batteries at a premium.

Some people off to the shore to take protective action on boats or summer cottages.

Acquiring a supply of candles.

One gent even found a Coleman stove tucked away in the attic from some venture planned long ago, then had to scurry around to find fuel.

All of this was anticipatory, and probably a good reminder that once in a while we should just check around to be sure we're prepared in case of emergencies.

Don't, however, react with complacency when such storm warnings are given again, as well they might this time of year.

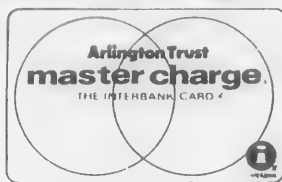

Hurricanes, or any other of Nature's unpredictable furies, are devastating when they hit, lessened somewhat by being prepared and forewarned.

Heed the warnings -- you can always use the batteries the day after Christmas when the toys wear down.

WEEKLY SPECIAL

Ford Keeps Tabs on Delegates

by Jack Anderson with Joe Spear

WASHINGTON -- President Ford isn't taking any chances with his delegates at the Republican national convention in Kansas City.

Like a mother hen, he plans to keep close track of them. He wants to prevent any 11th hour defections to Ronald Reagan.

So he's had his campaign aides devise an elaborate electronic system for delegate watching. Here's how it will work:

One hundred Ford campaign workers will be equipped with electronic beepers and turned loose at the convention. Each will be assigned a certain number of delegates to babysit. And they will be on call 24 hours a day.

They'll be directed by four top Ford braintrusts, operating out of a "mission control" trailer, just off the convention floor.

"Mission control" will stay in contact with all the Ford delegate watchers, collecting rumors and information on Ronald Reagan's lobbying activity.

At the first sign of trouble, a top Ford operative will be dispatched to sweet talk any wavering delegates.

"Mission control" will also move to stifle damaging rumors.

The Ford men have even made Pentagon-style contingency plans if the Reagan forces jam their radio frequency; they will have special telephones on the floor that will tie into "mission control."

Punishing The Press: A small Colorado newspaper is being hounded out of business because it had the courage to take on the powerful.

The paper is The Crested Butte Chronicle. This tiny weekly broke one of the biggest stories of the year, when it reported that President Ford's campaign manager, Bo Callaway, had misused his position.

He allegedly pulled strings inside the government to benefit his own investment in a Colorado ski resort. The story forced the embattled Bo to step down as the President's campaign chairman.

Colorado's Governor Richard Lamm called to alert us that the paper that broke the story has been hit by an advertising boycott. The Chronicle's editor, Myles Arber, said that advertising revenues have dropped almost 70 per cent.

Most merchants in the county are also refusing to sell the paper. They are heavily dependent upon the ski resort for business. At the base of the ski resort, the Chronicle news stands have been removed.

At the same time, Callaway's company, the Crested Butte Development Corporation, is suing the paper for libel. The editor said the cost of defending the suit, even if he wins, could drive him out of business.

We should add that Bo Callaway has insisted all along that he did nothing wrong. Senate investigators haven't yet submitted their verdict.

Security Flap: A controversy is raging in the war rooms of the Western world. The problem is this: there is a real possibility that Communists will soon hold top leadership positions in some NATO countries.

Secretary of State Henry Kissinger won't compromise. He has secretly urged our NATO partners to cease all military dealings with any government that admits Communists to top positions. He feels they should not be privy to NATO secrets.

He is particularly worried that the Italian government may accept a Communist minister. Other Western European leaders have argued that the Italian Communists are independent of Moscow.

But Kissinger remains unper-suaded. He is so dogmatic about it that he has ordered American ambassadors in Western Europe to have absolutely no contact with Communists.

In Spain, U.S. Ambassador Wells Stabler won't meet with any group that even associates closely with Communists. In Italy, American Ambassador John Volpe tried to stop five congressmen from seeing the Communist leaders.

The five met with the Communists anyway. After their return home, one congressman complained to the State Department that "Volpe seems to spend most of his time trying to figure out how to avoid shaking hands with Communists at cocktail parties."

Tax Quotas: Congressional investigators have uncovered startling evidence that Internal Revenue Service agents are working under a secret quota system. The IRS agents must produce a certain number of tax collections. When their record slumps, they fall under "the gun" of their superiors.

In an effort to meet their quotas, the desperate agents often go after the average taxpayers. It is easier to "squeeze" a few more tax dollars out of the ordinary taxpayer than to investigate the big businessmen, who often have high-priced lawyers working for them.

Congressional sources have told us, however, that Congress will soon demand that IRS Commissioner Donald Alexander put an end to this practice.

Memorial Hall Library

Pottery Display

A selection of pottery by Roger Roberge, formerly of Lawrence and Andover, is on display in the main reading room at the library. Mr. Roberge, who presently has a studio in Cambridge, studied ceramics at the Museum School, Boston and in Japan. The display includes a teapot, several plates, vases and boxes.

New Reference Books

Some interesting reference books have arrived during the summer. The Massachusetts Consumers Council has recently published a manual to help people resolve their own consumer complaints. Entitled You Can Get Results, the manual discusses consumer related laws in language the layman can understand, and advises him/her when to seek professional assistance. Appendices include sample complaint letters as well as a detailed list of Legal Aid Offices throughout the state. If you have complaints about things such as goods or services purchased, housing, and insurance, this manual may be your key to action.

People often call the library for advice on purchasing an encyclopedia for their family. A new Encyclopedia Buying Guide has just arrived to help people make this decision. It discusses many different kinds of encyclopedias and compares similar ones with reference to writing style, reader suitability, and reliability. Be sure to check it before making the big purchase.

A new book in the vocational field is the Directory Of Internships, Work Experience Programs, And On-The-Job Training Opportunities. It is a guide to opportunities in government, business and industry, professional associations and various social organizations in the U.S. and Canada. This is the first time such a directory has been published and it may be just what job-hunters are looking for.

looking for.

Finally, any music buffs planning a trip abroad should take note of two recent acquisitions: The Music Guide To Great Britain and The Music Guide To Austria And Germany. Written by two professional musicians, the books give locations of libraries and museums, opera houses and musical organizations and such specifics as ticket agencies, musical instrument distributors, summer courses and much more.

Ballardvale News

'Elizabeth Of New York' Presented

The exclusive New England premiere of the new American drama "Elizabeth of New York" takes place at the air-conditioned Town & Country Playhouse of Salem, N.H. through Sunday, Aug. 15. The new play was written by Sr. Francis Maria Cassidy who is expected to attend some of the performances. The professional production will star New York's Ann Grassano in the title role of Elizabeth Bayley Seton, the first American born canonized Catholic saint.

Mother Seton was the daughter of an affluent New York family who married, in 1794, William Magee Seton, eldest son of a wealthy New York importer. While raising a family, Elizabeth found time to work actively for the Old Trinity Episcopal Church. Her husband died of tuberculosis while in Italy and upon her return to America, became a Catholic convert after much controversy. She died in 1821 after founding the American Sisters of Charity.

"Elizabeth of New York" is being presented for the first time in New England, after much negotiations with its author, producer David Garmel convinced Sr. Cassidy that the stirring drama would be presented as she had envisioned it. The new production is under the direction of David McNitt, lighting designed by Daniel Charles Abrahamsen, costumes by Bob Harvey and sets designed by Mr. McNitt.

"Elizabeth of New York" will be presented nightly through Saturday at 8:15 p.m., Sunday at 7 with a Thursday matinee at 2 p.m. The air-conditioned Town & Country Playhouse is located in the new High School complex in Salem, N.H. and is easily reached at exit 1 off Interstate Route 93 opposite Rockingham Park with plenty of lighted free parking.

Panel On Child Abuse Scheduled

Greater Lawrence Council for Children Committee on Child Abuse and Neglect will hold a public forum Aug. 19, 7 to 9:30 p.m. at Bon Secours Hospital Auditorium.

A film on child abuse and neglect and a panel presentation will be followed by a question and answer period. Panelists will be Carol Baker, an attorney who will talk on current statutes and laws in Massachusetts relating to child abuse and neglect; Alice McCarthy, a policewoman with the Lawrence police, who will talk on her involvement in child abuse and neglect as it relates to her department; Maurice Bova, director of Children's Protective Services who will tell what happens when his department gets involved and services offered by their offices; Miss Mary Blanchard, supervisor of Inflicted Injury Unit of Department of Public Welfare, and Dr. Thomas Hayes, chief of Emergency Services at Bon Secours Hospital who will talk on the cases he sees.

Second of the Seven Wonders are the Hanging Gardens of Babylon, adding luxurious glamor to the most important ancient city of Mesopotamia.

Quilts On Exhibit At Salem

Patchwork quilts will be on display at the Essex Institute, 132 Essex St., Salem, during the summer and early fall in the McCarthy Gallery. The exhibition, mounted by Anne Farnam, Curator, will be rotated periodically to show some of the many examples of quilts and coverlets in the Essex Institute's collections.

Currently on view are "Crazy Quilts", popular in the late 1870's and 1880's. Their sumptuous textures of velvet, silk, satin and brocade, overlaid with embroidery, contrast vividly with the more simple appearance of cotton quilts, which will be on view during August.

The four "crazy quilts" currently displayed all by different women, demonstrate the skill and imagination of the Victorians. Mrs. Hall J. Leigh chose an oriental theme for her embroidery and some of these motifs are included in her quilt. An unknown woman left unfinished her pillow cover made entirely of brilliant yellow cigar bands. In 1883, Jane Crittenden Hart completed her colorful quilt and also made a matching pillow cover. In 1884, Mrs. Bertram Gould incorporated into her design presidential campaign ribbons and a ribbon commemorating the 1872 World Peace Jubilee in Boston.

No bit of memorabilia or scrap dress cloth was too small or too insignificant to include! The Victorian ladies were thrifty as their mothers and grandmothers, the housewives of early New England.

Also shown through the summer is the Essex County Bicentennial Quilt representing the 34 cities and towns of the county with the Essex Institute rooster design holding the central square. The Essex County Needlework Guild has worked this lovely piece.

Fresh Melons At Peak

The peak season for fresh melons is here and there's one to suit most every taste, suggests the Massachusetts Department of Food and Agriculture.

Native cantaloupes, the most widely grown melon variety in the Bay State, are already available and the small size "Sugar Baby" watermelons will soon be ripe. Both will be harvested until the first frost, though quantities are limited.

The term "muskmelon" really includes all melon varieties other than watermelons. Both belong to the gourd family, as do cucumbers, pumpkins and squashes.

Persian melons are most similar to cantaloupes as both have a corky netted surface and orange flesh. The Persian is larger, however, and has a more aromatic flavor.

Honeydew melons have a smooth rind that is creamy white when ripe. The sweet, juicy flesh is a delicate green. Smaller but very similar is the honeyball melon, whose surface is slightly netted.

Crenshaw melons are noted for their juicy pale orange flesh and their slightly furrowed rind is golden yellow when ripe. The large globular fruit tends to be pointed at the stem end.

Casaba melons have a delicate creamy white flesh and a chartreuse-yellow rind that is lightly furrowed. Pumpkin shaped, this melon also may be pointed at the stem end. The Juan Canary is closely related to the Casaba and very similar.

Santa Claus, also called Christmas, is a brownish green oval shaped melon with yellow stripes that resembles a honedew in flavor.

Selecting the best quality melons can be a challenge, but when ripe, melons should yield slightly to light thumb pressure on the blossom end.

To complete ripening at home, keep at room temperature for a few days -- and then refrigerate if you prefer chilled melon.

Best Buys

Current best buys in fresh fruit are melons, watermelon, peaches, nectarines, plums, Bartlett pears, cherries, grapes, bananas, lemons and limes.

In fresh vegetables, best buys are cabbage, carrots, corn, cucumbers, Boston and romaine lettuce, chicory, escarole, new potatoes, radishes, tomatoes, yellow and zucchini squash.

At meat and poultry counters, best buys are turkeys, whole and cut up chickens, hams, beef chuck blade steaks and roasts, shell sirloin steaks, boneless chuck shoulder steaks, tip roasts and top and bottom round roasts.

In fish, best buys are fresh mackerel, cod steaks and fillets, frozen whiting, turbot fillets and squid.

Hatch Sees Pension Fund In Dire Strait

"I've just read a national report about pension systems that scares the hell out of me," House Minority Leader Frank Hatch said this past week.

"It consistently cites Massachusetts as the worst funded and least stable system in the country, more than confirming the warnings John Ames and I have talked about over the past year."

Hatch and Assistant Leader John Ames announced that they will file two bills aimed at reforming the Massachusetts pension system.

One bill would create a commission to explore alternative systems like Social Security and the effect of partial or complete advance funding of pensions for state employees.

Other legislation would require

A sunflower is made up of hundreds of flowers. Outside, flowers have a single, large yellow petal which attracts insects. Massachusetts Audubon says. In the center the flowers have no petals, but contain nectar and pollen. The whole floral colony produces about 1,000 seeds.

that pension impact statements, a detailed accounting of additional costs entailed, be attached to any legislation aimed at changing present pension benefits. It would further require that such increases be funded at the time they are adopted.

"The report, compiled by John Nuveen and Company of New York, was prepared to guide state and municipal bond investors," Hatch said.

"Its premise is that long term pension liability is a factor just like bonded indebtedness in assessing a state's financial strength.

"They use the combined pension and other debt liability per capita as a yardstick. $500 per person is the national average. Nuveen says anything over $750 is excessive. Using out of date figures, they calculated Massachusetts at $1150. After a discussion with the Nuveen Research Department, using today's figures, we calculated that it is more like $1400 or $1500 per head today, three times the national average.

"Massachusetts' unique pay-as-you-go system, with state relying on general fund money to pay for pensions, putting nothing aside to invest for the system, is cited as 'the most unrealistic approach to pension contributions.'

"The average ratio of pension system assets to annual benefit payments is 18:1. Massachusetts, at 5:1, has the worst ratio of any state in the union."

Hatch concluded, "we will know more about the possibilities and problems of funding our pension system when the Retirement Law Commission's report comes out shortly. But there is no question that we must change our system radically. We may be locked in by contractual obligations to present employees, but we can at least begin to mold workable system around employees who are hired in the future.

"Furthermore, every new contract with state employees, like the one now being negotiated, has an impact on pensions.

"If we don't begin to take action now, someday someone will retire from state service only to find that we have no money to pay them their pension. We can't let this happen."

THE TOWNSMAN, AUGUST 12, 1976

Road & Track "This car does it all; it's small, light, roomy and fast, with nimble and responsive steering, ride and handling. Best sedan under $3,500"

Popular Mechanics "Volkswagen's Rabbit is the best value for 1975."

Car & Driver "Whole populations of drivers will live for years with this car, strongly impressed by its generally nimble disposition and its sensitive feel of the road through the steering wheel and brake pedal."

Esquire "It is the specific type of car that Detroit will be building in the 1980's"

Schools Get Facelifting As Opening Day Nears

With the opening of school just a month away, Andover schools were in various stages of facelifting this week.

Transportation Assistant Sam Arcidy, who has been coordinating maintenance efforts in the absence of a business manager or maintenance engineer, said his priorities have been set mainly from a safety standpoint.

For example, he said, a major hot top job is being done at the Jackson - Doherty - Stowe School complex. Much of the area behind Doherty was dug up a couple of years ago after a steam line burst, and needed a new surface.

Some hot top will also be applied for the first time behind Doherty where the grass has been stripped by the youngsters at play. Arcidy says heavy traffic makes it difficult to grow grass there, and when it rains, the area becomes a muddy mess.

Annual safety precautions include the overhaul of furnace burner motors, the cleaning of boilers, checking of the eight emergency generators, and the checking of all fire alarms and fire extinguishers.

Arcidy said they're also starting a program to refinish seven of the nine wooden gymnasium floor. The floors are very expensive, he said, and will be refinished professionally, after some preparation by regular maintenance crews. They're under constant use, Arcidy went on, and if they get warped from water, for example, they can be a hazard to the youngsters. South and Doherty Schools do not have wooden gym floors.

New carpet is being installed in a kindergarten at West Elementary and in one of the classrooms at Sanborn, while tile is being installed in a formerly carpeted loft at Bancroft. Arcidy said the Bancroft carpeting had been damaged by water backing into the building. The drainage problem has been corrected, but the decision to use tile was made in case the problem should recur.

Jackson School, which houses the Reading and Special Education Departments, has gotten a major "uplifting", Arcidy said, with interior paint and curtains. The painting was done by a CETA worker, who has now been assigned full-time to painting in East Junior High.

Arcidy called it "an effort to let the kids know we're trying to make a dent . . . to do as much as possible."

East seems to be the building most in need of repair, and Arcidy said he has been studying that school's problems as a whole.

Perhaps the major problem there is the windows, and Arcidy said they will be going out to bid soon on a window replacement program.

In the west wing, particularly, there are some very old windows that no longer hold putty very well because they have been replaced so many times over the past 40 or 50 years.

Arcidy said he has been over the building with some independent roofing contractors, who indicated that the building is basically sound. They said, however, that some flashing needs to be replaced to protect the main roof.

Arcidy said East's heating and plumbing now have to be looked at more critically, as some people have said that the heating system is "worn out".

Major repairs at the high school will come under discussion at the Special Town Meeting Monday night, and the question of a storage shed at Sanborn to free up space for more classroom activities inside is expected to come up at Tuesday night's school committee meeting.

Arcidy said the Voke School has agreed to start work in September on a storage shed for lawnmowers and other equipment. However, he said, the work could go faster if an outside contractor put in a foundation for it.

A search is underway for a full-time maintenance engineer, a position approved recently by the school committee, and Arcidy said it will be important for that person to get maintenance on a systematic plan.

Meanwhile, his efforts still adhere to "safety first".

Agenda

overseeing this activity alone goes beyond what can be reasonably expected of an all-volunteer board.

But, Acting Chairman Alan French felt that this matter was more suited to annual town meeting consideration. He said he believed in the necessity of the position, but felt that any money items at a special town meeting or the October session should be only of an emergency nature.

French also indicated that he would like to see the overall municipal employee structure reviewed to see if some relief could be given in this area between now and the annual town meeting next April.

Austin indicated that the major portion of the work will be in the spring, thus will not be funded even if approved at next year's annual town meeting.

With Chairman Greenberg absent from Monday's session, the board was reduced to four members and in the voting, French and Mrs. Susan Poore opposed the article for October, while Richard Bowen and Mrs. Janet Lake approved. The tie vote resulted in the item being dropped from the warrant.
